Nestled amongst native trees on an elevated corner allotment, this character-filled two bedroom home is resplendent with bay windows and a glorious new front deck. Inside, a practical open-plan living arrangement is teamed with robed bedrooms, a neat central bathroom (ensuite-effect to main bed) and the comforts of gas heating and reverse cycle cooling. There's also a delightful paved courtyard for outdoor entertaining and ample off-street car parking. Best of all, this hidden gem is located exceptionally close to everything that Ringwood has to offer including Eastland, EastLink and Costco. Heatherdale Station is just 550m (approx.) away. For buyers and investors, this is an outstanding opportunity to purchase a house on its own title for less than what many are paying for units and townhouses.
