$900,000 - $990,000

Solid Family Home with Exciting Potential

On the market for the first time in over 60 years, this original brick veneer beauty occupies a rare 1057sqm (approx.) elevated allotment opposite Mullum Mullum Reserve. Flaunting unmistakable period charm with high ceilings and plentiful natural light, the home will attract investors or keen renovators, while the generous block will dish up a range of exciting options for those searching for land.

The current residence is ideal for families, consisting of five bedrooms and three living zones, including a comfortable formal lounge serviced by a well-appointed kitchen. Enjoying a sunny northerly aspect, the sizeable yard offers room for pets and a covered pergola for laid-back entertaining. Additional features include ducted heating, a workshop and ample off-street car parking.
