Flaunting four levels of luxurious living space and panoramic views of the Melbourne skyline, this expertly designed town residence enjoys a privileged location between the city and the sea. A triumph in contemporary style, oak floors and high ceilings enhance the interior, which boasts four bedrooms, three bathrooms and superb open-plan living. Choose from a series of balconies or the rooftop terrace to relax and unwind, or gather in the state-of-the-art stone kitchen with its high quality Smeg appliances and breakfast bar. The very definition of effortless inner city living, this high-end yet low maintenance home is just moments from Port Melbourne Beach, vibrant Bay Street and South Wharf. Public transport options are easily accessible, with the CBD, Docklands and Crown also nearby. Additional ...
